Anthroposophic Doctors & Health Centers in the United States

Address and email directory, compiled from PAAM (Physicians' Association for Anthroposophic Medicine) and organization listings

Health Centers & Communities

Note: unlike Germany, the US has no dedicated acute-care “anthroposophic hospitals.” The closest equivalents are residential health/retreat centers and Camphill life-sharing communities that incorporate anthroposophic medicine and nursing.

Sources & notes: Doctors compiled from the Physicians' Association for Anthroposophic Medicine (PAAM) Provider Directory (anthroposophicmedicine.org/provider-directory), cross-checked against each practice's own website where available. This is PAAM's full public listing at time of research — practitioners must be current PAAM members who opted in to be listed, so this is not a complete count of every anthroposophically-trained provider in the US. Institutions were identified separately (Rudolf Steiner Health Center, Fellowship Community, Camphill communities) since the US has no acute-care hospital network comparable to Germany's. Entries marked 'Not publicly listed' had no email in any source checked — use the phone number or website contact form instead. A naturopathic-doctor (ND) directory is separately maintained by the Society of Physicians of Anthroposophic Naturopathy at span.wildapricot.org/directory, not included here.
