South Africa

Africa

Waldorf education arrived in 1959. South Africa has 15 schools and 14 kindergartens, the most on the continent, and is the training hub for sub-Saharan Africa.

NAME	LOCATION	DETAILS
Centre for Creative Education (CCE)	Plumstead, Cape Town	The main Waldorf teacher training institution in Africa. Founded 1993, state-accredited, and also trains East African teachers. Offers a B.Ed in Foundation Phase teaching, a B.A. in Eurythmy and early childhood certificates. centreforcreativeeducation.co.za
Federation of Waldorf Schools in South Africa	Nationwide	Coordinates the schools and kindergartens. waldorf.org.za
Michael Oak, Constantia and Sunfield	Cape Town area	Michael Oak (Kensington) is one of the two founding schools from 1959, and Constantia is one of the most established.
Isiseko Sobuntu and Zenzeleni Campus	Cape Town townships	Waldorf-inspired early childhood centres, a kindergarten and a primary school in Khayelitsha, all run with CCE.
SASIM, Dr. R. Goldberg, Natura / Pegasus and Weleda	Nationwide / Cape Town	SASIM lists practitioners at integrativemedicine.co.za. Dr. Goldberg offers Iscador mistletoe therapy (drraoulgoldberg.com). Natura / Pegasus and Weleda sell remedies in health stores and pharmacies.

East Africa: Kenya, Tanzania and Uganda

Waldorf education began here in 1990 with the first school in Nairobi. Since then it has spread to Tanzania and Uganda.
